

Jan. 1996

PULASKI COUNTY MASTER GARDENERS GENERAL MEETING

The General Meeting for the Pulaski County Master Gardeners was held January 9, 1996, 11:30 a.m., in the Blue Flame Room of ARKLA Gas Company.

The meeting was called to order by David Dodson, Vice President, presiding for Jane Gulley, who was absent.

Beth announced Master Gardeners could still get their 1995 work hours to her for credit. Also, there would be a travel committee meeting on January 10, at the Extension Office, at 10:00 a.m., and there was a sign up sheet placed out front for telephone time.

The Master Gardeners were told of the thank you note from Pinnacle for the Jeff Johnson memorial.

A report was given on the different projects with little activity going on at this time.

The Childrens Activity at the Flower & Garden Show reported they needed dried pansies.

The Master Gardeners were advised that the $10.00 dues for this year is now due.

Ruth Jones introduced Fred Henker as the guest speaker. He gave an interesting program on Jerusalem Artichokes.

The meeting was adjourned.

Beth Phelps recorded minutes in the absence of Ann Ward.

Feb 96

The Pulaski County Master Gardeners General Meeting was held on February 13, 1996, at 11:30 a.m., in the Blue Flame Room of the ARKLA Gas Building.

Jane Gulley, President, called the meeting to order and introduced Anita Chamberlin as attending her first meeting since her car accident last year.

Beth introduced Donnie Carmical, owner of Carmical Farms. He presented an interesting program on water gardening and Koi fish.

Jan King and Linda Dantzler gave the travel committee report, with the first trip to Camden, March 14, 1996, for the Daffodil Tour. A bus for the trip was recommended and approved.

Ray Sarmiento gave information on the other trips. Starting on April 12, a trip to Azalea Hill in Pine Bluff, on May 15, a trip to a Memphis garden, and June 25, a trip to the Clarksville Experimental Station.

Karen Vesole stated she needed lots of dried flowers for the children's project at the Flower and Garden Show.

Jane Gulley stated there would be a book sale at the Flower and Garden Show.

Beth announced the Christmas party would be on December 12, 1996, at the Adult Center. She also explained the new computer phone answering system, which is to be installed in the Pulaski County Extension office this spring.

Linda Hubbell stated the Old Mill has a workday scheduled for February 20. They also would be using the Burns Park Greenhouse.

Dottie Heckenbach stated the Jacksonville City Hall would have a clean-up/workday soon.

Martha Whitehurst stated Mackie Hamilton is Chairperson for Pinnacle. Lots of clean-up would be done soon and Carl Hunter is donating wildflowers for the center strip of land to the visitors center.

Hilda Boger talked about the Baptist Rehabilitation Center.

Bettye Jane Daugherty mentioned work at the Old State House would stop in June and resume again next year.

Marie Flickinger stated they had worked at the Victorian Cottage.

Aleta Newell said she had Dogwoods to dig if anyone was interested. Also the Bee Keeping Class would start February 26, and go for ten Mondays.

Jane Gulley stated we needed people to sign up for the Open House for the two libraries. Master Gardeners were needed to answer questions.

Jay Hill announced the Garden Club of America - Zone 9, would meet in Little Rock March 27, with exhibits.

David Dodson stated the computer committee would meet at 9:00 a.m., on Thursday, at the Extension office.

Norma Weems was introduced and she stated Horticultural Exhibits were needed for the Flower & Garden Show and she had applications.

With no further business, the meeting was adjourned.

Ann Ward
Secretary

March 96

PULASKI COUNTY MASTER GARDENERS GENERAL MEETING

The General Meeting of the Pulaski County Master Gardeners was held on March 12, 1996, at 11:30 a.m., in the Blue Flame Room of the ARKLA Building

Jane Gulley, President, called the meeting to order.

Beth Phelps introduced Howard and Janice Fischvogt, from Wild Birds Unlimited, who gave an interesting talk on Back yard habitat.

Linda Dantzler reported the daffodil tour was set to go as scheduled.

Ray Sarmiento stated there would be a trip to Azalea Hill on April 12, a trip to Memphis on May 17, and a trip to the Clarksville Experimental station May 25, 1996.

Bill Burgin will meet with the governor's garden committee after the meeting.

Anita Chamberlin stated the Old Mill would have a planting day in March. The committee members could work at Burns Park Greenhouse in the mornings. Call Claudia Russell, 758-2680.

Marian Berry reported the Hollies were cut back at the State Hospital and it would soon be ready to plant.

Marie Flickinger reported the Victorian House needed work and Monday would be the work day.

Bettye Jane Daugherty complimented the newsletter staff on an outstanding paper.

Beth stated there were sign-up sheets in the lobby, new books she purchased for the Master Gardener room and a tape on Herbs, by Holly Shimizu. These can be reviewed by the Master Gardeners. There was also information in the lobby on the Conference in California and one in Mobile.

Beth stated the Sunshine Potting Company will have a window box contest.

Master Gardener dues are $10.00 and need to be paid.

With no further business, the meeting was adjourned.

Ann Ward
Secretary

PULASKI COUNTY MASTER GARDENERS GENERAL MEETING

April
April 98

The Pulaski County Master Gardeners General meeting was called to order by President Jane Gulley.

Carl Hunter was introduced and given a plaque and a Master Gardener hat, as an Honorary Master Gardener, in appreciation for all his effort in helping the Master Gardeners.

Breck Campbell presented the program with slides from three gardens he visited.

The California Master Gardeners are looking for anyone interested in giving a program at the National meeting.

The Camden trip was excellent and Beth mentioned about the Pulaski County Master Gardeners being host for a tour of Little Rock next spring. Survey sheets would be passed out at the state meeting in October.

The Greenhouse Committee stated plants would be for sale each Tuesday at the Greenhouse, from 9:00-11:00 a.m., until all are sold.

The Mount Holly Cemetery will be on the Quapaw tour this year. Dates for the tour are May 4 & 5.

The Master Gardeners dues are past due, and approximately 50 plus have not paid.

There will be an Herb Day on April 20, from 11:00-4:00 p.m., at Trinity United Methodist Church, at Evergreen and Mississippi in Little Rock. The cost is $10.00.

The Social Committee will meet at 1:00 p.m., on Thursday at the Extension office.

Ray Sarmiento advised the tour to Azalea Hill was all set, and also the trip to Memphis is still scheduled and the bus is almost full.

Jane mentioned an article in the paper about Dick Butler, a Master Gardener, who has developed and named an Iris Maumelle.

Jay Hill talked about Pinnacle.

The Victorian Garden had some vandalism. They also had some old daffidils to plant.

On April 30, from 9:00-10:30 a.m., the Old Mill will have a work day.

The North Little Rock greenhouse still needs help.

Beth stated two Master Gardeners have received thank you notes in regard to their courtesy while doing their phone time at the Extension office.

The Water Fair at the Water Company will be May 8 and 9. Volunteers are needed.

The Fletcher Library open house will be on May 4.

Beth mentioned a new product called Floral - which prevents fruiting on trees.

With no further business, the meeting was adjourned.

Ann Ward
Secretary

PULASKI COUNTY MASTER GARDENER GENERAL MEETING

May 96

The Pulaski County General Meeting was held at 11:30 a.m., on May 14, 1996 in the Blue Flame Room, in the ARKLA Building.

Jane Gulley, President, called the meeting to order.

Ruth Jones introduced Mary Lee McHenry, as our guest speaker. She presented a program on Edible Flowers.

Jane stated Master Gardeners were needed to plant flowers at the County Courthouse, on May 24th and a sign-up sheet was in the lobby.

David Dodson advised that Lois Corley needed the different garden chair persons to get their orders for pansies to Lois by mid-June.

Jane stated the Board recommended we spend $1,500 to $2,500 to get a computer for the Master Gardeners. We will purchase the computer and then donate it to the Cooperative Extension Office, who in return will maintain it for us. A motion was made and seconded and all approved. Information will be published in the newsletter on what the computer will be capable of doing.

The treasurers report is posted on the door at each meeting. Ann Cooper stated there are still many Master Gardeners who have not paid their yearly dues.

Beth stated the Fletcher Library opening and Mount Holly tour were very successful.

Jane stated we would have a letter enclosed with the next newsletter concerning the spraying of Wildflowers along Hwy. 10. The letter would go to Dan Flowers, Highway Director. All Master Gardeners were encouraged to write a note on the letter protesting the spraying of the flowers.

Ruth Jones said the Tour of Homes on June 11, at 9:00 a.m., would meet at Lakewood Gardens. The homes of Max Thorn, Billie Massey, and Jan King, would be toured, followed by lunch at the Old Mill.

Lois Corley stated flowers at the Greenhouse would be on sale on Tuesday and Saturday.

Jan King stated the Clarksville trip on June 25, 1996, is $15.00 for the bus. This included a sack lunch.

Ray Sarmiento stated there was room for (3) three more people on the bus to Memphis. There would be no travel in July and August. On September 25 & 26, a trip is planned for Hodges Gardens at Natchez, Mississippi, and Rose tour at Shreveport.

Anita Chamberlin stated the picnic is set at Pinnacle on June 4, 1996.

David Dodson wanted the newspaper article on the Old Mill, if anyone had a copy.

A planting day at the Old Mill is set for May 22.

Bill Burgin wanted to meet afterwards with his committee on the Governor's Garden. This was the last day to get reports in for the newsletter.

Beth stated sign-up sheets were in the lobby for different events.

There is a "Hot Line" number - 399-3488, which is to report litter bugs along our road ways.

Name tags are $4.50, sign up if you need one.

Beth read a list of new Master Gardeners who have completed their telephone time.

With no further business the meeting was adjourned.

Ann Ward
Secretary

PULASKI COUNTY MASTER GARDENERS GENERAL MEETING

Oct. 1986
1996

The Pulaski County Master Gardeners General meeting was held on October 8, 1996, in the auditorium of the new Administrative Building, 2301 South University.

The meeting was called to order by President David Dodson. He stated the Garden clubs were having a big sale on October 19, 1996.

Greenhouse Chairperson, Lois Corley, announced there were 11,000 pansies and the different project Chairpersons needed to get their pansies before the regular sale.

Pinnacle Chairperson, Martha Whitehurst stated there would be a workday on October 17, at 9:00 a.m.

Bettye Jane Daugherty passed a sign-up sheet for people to be called when extra help was needed for a certain project.

Breck Campbell is on the "Pot Man" Committee for the Flower and Garden Show and wanted Master Gardeners to provide some ideas for decorating different areas around town, in order to attract interest in the Flower and Garden Show.

Marie Flickinger reported on the Victorian Cottage and asked for help in growing Hostas under a Magnolia tree.

Joe Dickens stated the Hosta Society was holding a meeting on October 22, at 2:00 p.m., at the Christ Church, 5th & Scott Street, in Little Rock.

Breck Campbell mentioned there would be an annual native plant sale at Memphis. No dates were given.

Beth stated Al Bruno, with The Good Earth, would hold classes on Perennials at UALR, starting October 21st. You can call The Good Earth for information.

Beth stated if anyone was interested in an all cotton T-Shirt, to send in their order with an extra $1.00 charge.

This Saturday was the last River Market Clinic from 10:00 until noon. It would start up again next March.

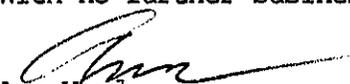

The Horticulture Hot-Line, 671-2333 was being tested, so anyone could give it a call and give any feed-back on problems.

The Flower & Garden Show, is scheduled on February 21, 22, & 23, 1997. Booths are still available. Cecelia Buck was getting the speakers, Dale Adcock was handling the childrens programs and Jay Hill and Breck Campbell would be in charge of the volunteers.

The tour to Louisiana was a success and Ray Sarmiento had pictures of the trip in the lobby.

With the business finished, Beth introduced Bill Burgin, a Master Gardener, who presented an interesting program on his vegetable garden.

With no further business, the meeting was adjourned.

Ann Ward
Secretary