

Pulaski County Master Gardener General Meeting
October 15, 2019
St. James United Methodist Church

President Suzanne Potts opened the meeting at 11:34 am. She introduced Allen White, who introduced our speaker, Victor Ford, from UAEX, who spoke on growing mushrooms at home.

Announcements:

Pat Luzzi announced the New Members Reception in Jones Hall on November 19th, following the general meeting. Members with names beginning with letters A-M please bring a savory snack to share. This includes the ZOOM and online classes.

Catherine Chalmont announced the St. James fall cleanup. It will be October 22 at 9 am, with an October 29th rain date. Meet in the parking lot. Bring rakes, gloves and planting tools.

Sharon Priest announced the Project Chair/ Co Chair and Standing Committee Chair Orientation, October 15, after the General Meeting. Lunch will be served.

Cori Fetters is taking orders for shirts and other Stuff through today. Delivery day will be at the November meeting.

Ramblings from Randy: He has 5 new calves and 8 new lambs with 200 more on the way.

The State Fair Grounds needs some volunteers to spruce up the grounds before the Fair.

Please enter your hours asap. Randy has to appear before the UAEX folks soon, and he wants to report as many hours as possible.

The Pleasant Valley Property Owners Association is asking for help cleaning up some beds. Contact 225-0481. Not reportable hours.

Door prizes were given out.

The meeting adjourned at 12:41 pm.

Respectfully submitted, Carol Young, Secretary

