

Pulaski County Master Gardener

General Meeting via Zoom

September 15, 2020

Welcome: Cindy Strauss welcomed everyone to the meeting at 11:33.

Speaker: Jodie Mahony introduced Rob Galloway of The Nurserie Farm and Garden Market who spoke about his new business located at the previous Horticare location at Stagecoach Rd. and I-430.

Announcements: President Sharon Priest made the following announcements:

The 33 people who have not picked up their past Busy Bees will receive an email telling them how they may do so.

Those who ordered t-shirts may pick them up at the Extension Office.

There will be no St. James work day. If anyone needs extra hours they may contact Sharon Priest or Cindy Strauss.

General meetings will continue via Zoom for the rest of the year.

Randy shared the Extension Office is closed to outside volunteers until after Oct. 4, as per the county Judge

Ramblings with Randy:

Zoom training has been cancelled. On-Line training will take its place this fall with 28 participating.

He misses the Hort Hotline people. Horticulture interest has increased 37% to 40%. Calls to the Hort Hotline have increased as well.

The Flower and Garden Show for 2021 has been cancelled due to Covid. A

Activities, to be announced, are planned to help replace it.

On the farm, his Canadian goose, Lucy Goosey, chases away visiting geese but is mothering 9 ducklings. She even shares her blue pool with them.

The cows are calving and the sheep should begin lambing in October.

The meeting was adjourned at 12:08 p.m.

Respectfully Submitted,

Sara Jordan
