

PCMG Weekly Digest

Dear Master Gardener,

I hope you have all had wonderful week. Its looking like rain this weekend! The wind and clouds keep taunting us but hopefully we get some rain this weekend! Please keep an eye out for an email from us. Next week we are going to email out a survey through constant contact to get your opinions on a our program and how things are going.

Second Pinnacle View Methodist Church is hosting a Spring is Here event and would like a few Master Gardeners to work a booth for them. Again you will just be handing out information on master gardener program. That will be Saturday April 11th.

Jacksonville Air Force Base is looking for a master gardener to come teach their kids how to plant a garden for a single class April 11th at 11am. If you are interested in either of these please reach out to me and let me know. These are some excellent ways to increase our visibility in the community.

The St. James workday is scheduled for Tuesday April 14th at 9AM. This is our way of saying "Thank you" for letting us have our monthly meeting at the the church. There will be a sign-up sheet at the March meeting or you can contact Brenda Bobbitt at 501-416-4946 or email at bobbitt@swbell.net

Mark your calendars for the exciting plant sales coming up: the Pathfinder event in Jacksonville on April 10th and 11th, followed by the Little Rock Greenhouse on the 17th and 18th. These events are not just about beautiful plants; they are vital for our funding, so let's rally together, spread the word, and show our support!

Additionally, don't forget to check out the plethora of upcoming talks, trainings, and trips highlighted in this week's digest. It's a fantastic chance to learn and connect, so be sure to scroll all the way down and see what piques your interest!

Happy Gardening,
Derek Reed
